Letter of Acceptance.

Red Willow, Sept. 28th, 1885.
Hon. S. L. Green, President of the Republican County Convention.

DEAR SIR: Having learned that I have been placed in nomination for County Superintendent by the Republican County Convention over which you had the honor to preside, permit me to express my thanks, through you, to the members of the Convention, for the distinguished consideration conferred upon me, which, coming unsought, is the more to be prized. It is not without a distrust of my ability to do the fullest justice to the responsible office that I accept the nomination, adding only, that if elected, it will be my highest ambition to take up the work where my worthy predecessor may leave it, and to carry forward the cause of popular education in accordance with the progressive spirit of the age. Trusting, though a woman, that your confidence has not been misled, I am,

Respectfully Yours,

ADA P. BUCK.

NEXT Saturday the "unwashed" will meet in convention at Indianola to put in nomination a county ticket.

THE Hastings Gazette-Journal Co. has been reorganized, with J. O. Fisher, late of the State Journal Co., as business manager. Extensive improvements will be made and the daily enlarged.

This is the season of prairie fires. With all that may be said by the press in regard to the burning prairie, there is a vast amount of recklessness exhibited by people who are exposed to this danger.

We see it stated in the State Journal that Zimmerman, (the murderer of Jack Woods), who has been under sentence of death for that crime, has been admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000 and flown the country. If the report is true, the case is without precedent.

F. BERT, of the Reveille, expresses deep solicitation for our tenure of life—under certain and specific exigencies. However that may be, if the fool-killer ever strikes Culbertson, "may the Lord have mercy on your soul," Bert. There will be a dull thud—and all will be over.

The passage of an ordinance for compulsory vaccination in Montreal has resulted in a serious riot. The mob showered stones on the officers of the municipality and had to be dispersed at the point of the bayonet. The rioters were in many cases armed, and the spirit evinced indicated that the crowd was of the opinion that "freedom shrieked" when anti-vaccination fell.

FITZHUGH LEE is in the saddle once more. It is the same saddle in which his famous uncle, Robert E. Lee, rode during the Virginia campaign against the Union. Fitzhugh Lee is making his canvass as candidate for governor of Virginia accompanied by a troop of confederates from his old cavalry regiment. This is very suggestive. With Fitzhugh Lee the war is not over yet.—Bee.

SINCE the springing of the Bulgarian mine we hear no more of the sorrows of Alfonso and the rape of the Caroline islands. The neighbors have other fish to fry and have forgotten all about the grievances of Spain and the insolence of Bismarck toward that cholera-stricken people. We easily forget the grief of our acquaintances when we have some of our own to attend to.—Journal.

PRAIRIE fires have swept over a vast extent of territory in Dakota, destroying many farm houses and the season's crops. In the grazing regions the grass is destroyed and cattle will suffer. It is stated that the course of the fires could be discerned all along 125 miles of railroad, and in some cases the fire is known to have extended 20 miles from the track. The scene is described as being of utter blackness as far as the eye could reach. The loss by these fires will probably run up into the millions.

It is alleged that about forty republican citizens of South Dakota met secretly the other day and nominated an entire state ticket, including two congressmen and two United States senators, and pledged themselves to do their utmost to pull them through. The forty are very previous, if the allegation be true. Dakota isn't a state yet, and the prospects are that she will not be for the next two years, at least. The democratic party will never admit her so long as it has a majority to prevent it in either house, or a president to veto a bill for her admission.—Journal.

In company with Dr. Kay, our reporter enjoyed a ride of a few miles, north of town, last Friday afternoon. Our paragrapher found the roads, especially on the hill-sides and in the canyons in a wretched, aye almost dangerous condition. He also ascertained that the road overseer had made no attempt whatever to collect the poll taxes of that district, which consequently went into the county treasurer as delinquent. Further that those living along the road have all been anxious and willing to assist with labor and money in repairing the roads, but that no organized effort has as yet been instituted by the overseer, and nothing is done. Some work should be done this fall before the cold weather sets in, and we feel safe in promising the support of those living along that highway. Our scribe feels repaid for his shaking up by his raid on John Modrell's melon patch, where he found big, little and indifferent melons in profusion, and to which he helped himself bountifully.

The Great Reno is billed for Saturday night at the Opera Hall. Popular prices; Reserved seats, 35 cents; general admission, 20 cents; children under 12, 10 cents.

The law against obtaining goods under false pretences, in this state, is severe.
